GAINESVILLE-HALL COUNTY JUNIOR LEAGUE CELEBRATES 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF SERVICE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. DEAL) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DEAL of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and commend the Junior League of Gainesville-Hall County, Georgia as that group celebrates its 50th anniversary of service to our community. The Junior League is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community; and the women of Gainesville and Hall counties have certainly demonstrated during the past half century that hard work and good spirits can make a powerful difference in the community that we live in.

The Gainesville-Hall County chapter of the Junior League was founded by Ms. Idalu Haugabook Slack and chartered on May 21, 1951. The group began making a strong impact then, and I am proud to report that their work has not only continued but has intensified since that time. In 1951, the 21 charter members donated some 515 hours of community service. This year's membership donated over 8,000 hours, all while raising some $80,000 in a single year.

Early projects from the Gainesville-Hall County Junior League included services to the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, a story hour for children at the Hall County Library, and school lunches for less fortunate children. In 1952, this strong group of women began two permanent projects as well, the Green Hunter Homes Nursery, and the Charity Ball. Their list of accomplishments continued through the years, and in 1954 the first "Fall Thrift Sale" began.

The Junior League of Gainesville-Hall County has a special tradition of helping children with speech problems. After spending 4 years transporting children to the Atlanta Speech School, the members retained a speech correctionist to allow the children of Gainesville and Hall counties to get help closer to home. In the early 1970s, the Northeast Georgia Speech and Hearing Center was opened, and I had the honor of serving on that first board of directors. The Junior League also donated money for newborn intensive care equipment.

In recent years, the Junior League of Gainesville-Hall County underwrote a $30,000 grant to help open a new child advocacy center and has participated in the massive restoration of the Gainesville Civic Center. Joining with the Association of Junior Leagues International, health concerns emerged as major initiatives and projects were begun, including the creation of a mobile health van and the hosting of a Child Welfare Forum. History shows that the women of Gainesville-Hall County Junior League are able to continue old projects even as they engage in new endeavors that help our community.

Mr. Speaker, one of the main problems of the Junior League is demonstrating the effectiveness of trained volunteers, and they are certainly doing a great job at it. League members have a strong history as State and community leaders, and I commend the Gainesville-Hall County Junior League for their continuing legacy of service and achievement.
